Contingency dates

From the 1st train on July 6 (Sat) to the last train on July 7 (Sun), 2024

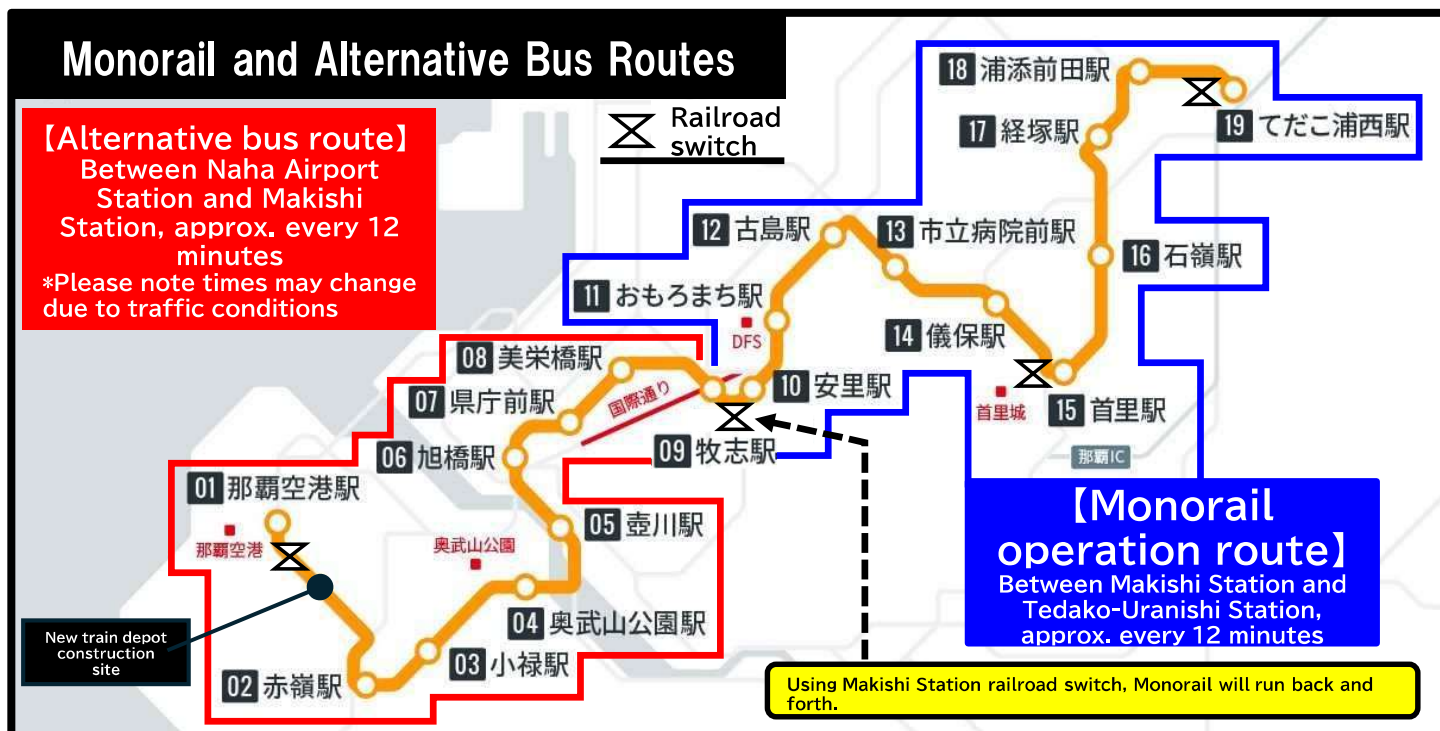

● Due to the construction of a railroad switch to a new train depot, the monorail from Naha Airport Station to Makishi Station will be suspended all day Saturday, June 29 and Sunday, June 30, 2024.

● During the construction, the monorail will still run between Makishi Station and Tedako-Uranishi Station approximately every 12 minutes.

A bus shuttle will run between Naha Airport Station and Makishi Station approximately every 12 minutes.

1*) Depending on the progress of construction, monorail operations may resume early.

2*) If the construction cannot be conducted due to weather conditions or for other reasons we will postpone the construction to Saturday, July 6 and Sunday July 7, 2024.

We apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your understanding and cooperation. Although alternative bus services will be available approximately every 12 minutes during the construction, there may be long wait times as a bus's maximum capacity is limited. Therefore, please kindly consider using other forms of transportation.
